DRAWN LESSON FROM BALKAN WAR

Rev. Dr. John Van Schaick, Jr., Praises Nations in Arms Against Turks.

SHOW NATIONAL UNSELFISHNESS

A buffer between us and the Turk.
Rev. Dr. John Van Schaick, Jr., of the Church of Our Father, Universalist, last night called the Balkan States, Dr. Van Schaick, in a sermon on the Balkan war, declared that "we do not care whether Albania and Macedonia and other Turkish provinces shall be under the Russian or the Serbian, or even the Austrian or Italian governments. What we are interested in is that the people there shall have an opportunity for life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." National unselfishness, Dr. Van Schaick stated, has been embodied in the history of the past month in the Balkan conflict, for his efforts to bring the powers to a territorial disinterestedness. The statement of such a position, Dr. Van Schaick declared, "indicates a new day in the history of diplomacy. The church, standing for unselfishness between man and man, and class and class, must stand even more strongly for unselfishness between nation and nation." Go Home to Fight.

"Another lesson of this war has been taught us by the peasant soldiers, the pushcart men, the foot soldiers of Illinois and Minnesota," said Mr. Van Schaick.
"Greeks, Bulgarians, Serbians, and Montenegrins in this country, by the thousands have gone home to fight in this war. Twelve coal mines in Illinois have been closed. Ten thousand Greeks have been sent from New York and 20,000 more are trying to get passage." The Balkan states have been fighting the battle. For 400 years they have been a buffer between us and the Turk. While our forefathers were laying the foundations of modern civilization in modern Europe, they were keeping watch in the South. And even if we owed them nothing, even if it is a question of a man of another religion or another race, when a human being is suffering under a misfortune to be the Red Cross motto, "No distinction of religion or race."

SUFFRAGISTS TO ATTEND CONGRESS

Washington to Send Large Delegation to Convention in Philadelphia.

Washington suffragists will send a large delegation to the forty-fourth convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, in Philadelphia, November 21-24, which is expected to be the most notable in the history of the vote-for-women movement in the United States.
Among those who probably will go are Mrs. Belva Lockwood, Miss Florence Ellerside, Miss Helen H. Gardner, Miss Alice T. Jenkins, Miss Nettie Louise White, Mrs. Anna E. Hendley, Mrs. L. W. Hemingway, Mrs. Glenn S.
Tinnin, Mrs. Ruth B. Henney, and Miss Elsie Hill.
The sessions will be held in Witherspoon Hall, and on Sunday, November 24, there is to be held in Metropolitan Opera House a thanksgiving mass meeting, which is expected to be the largest suffrage meeting ever held in the United States.

ASYLUM OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

Directors of German Orphanage Select Officials for Coming Year.

The directors of the German Orphan Asylum have re-elected the following officers: President, John F. Schneider; treasurer, Charles G. Rogers; first vice president, Martin Wiegand; superintendent, K. O. Oscar; first assistant vice president, Adolph Gude; matron, Mrs. K. O.
Oscar; secretary, William F. Meyers; attending physician, Dr. J. Strauss; consulting physicians, Drs. George K. Baker, Joseph W. Little, and Joseph H. Mendenhall.
A vote of thanks was given to William F. Gude for favors done to the society.
Similar votes were given Mrs. Katherine G. Loeffler, president of the Ladies' Sewing Society, and Mrs. K. O. Barthel, president of the Ladies' Aid Society, for their endeavors in behalf of the orphan.

WRECK INVESTIGATION.

Commerce Commission to Probe New Haven Accident.

Interstate Commerce Commission
C. McChord yesterday sent Assistant Secretary McGinty to confer with a representative of Chairman Richard T. Higgins, of the public utilities commission of Connecticut, on the wreck of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Merchants' Limited train, at Greens Farms, Saturday night.
In a message to Mr. Higgins Mr. Mc-Chord stated that inspectors were on the way to Greens Farms and to Putnam, where another wreck occurred on the same road Saturday night.
Commissioner McChord's telegram was as follows:
"Respecting the accident to the New York, New Haven and Hartford Merchants' Limited at Greens Farms last night, it is impossible for me to leave Washington at this time. I am sending as my personal representative Assistant Secretary McGinty, who will arrive at the scene of the accident tomorrow morning. Also, the commission's inspectors, Howard, Barney, and Hawley, are en route to Greens Farms."
"Respecting the accident on the same road at Putnam last night, the commission's inspectors, Bromley, Duffy, and Lyon, are now en route to that point."
